🏠 Firozabad, Uttar Pradesh, India

As an experienced web developer, I specialize in creating robust and scalable web applications. My technical proficiency spans across front-end development using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, demonstrated through my project 'Events at Your Choice Destination.' Additionally, I contribute to the digital transformation of ORD Software & ORD Pharma, enhancing its operations with innovative software solutions. My work is driven by a passion for leveraging technology to solve complex problems and deliver seamless user experiences.

Experience

ORD Pharma　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　2024 - Present

In my current role at ORD Pharma, our family business, I lead software development, innovation, and digital marketing efforts. Spearheading these areas allows me to drive technological advancements, enhance product innovation, and optimize our digital outreach strategies. Implementing cutting-edge solutions and strategies that elevate our market presence and operational efficiency brings me immense fulfillment, contributing to our mission of advancing healthcare solutions.

ORD Software　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　2020 - present

"Self-employed with ORD Software Agency, I craft custom software solutions using agile methodologies. With a focus on innovation and client needs, I deliver robust applications tailored to enhance business efficiency. My experience ensures top-notch results, fostering lasting partnerships built on trust and quality."
